1 THE 2016/17 AUSTRALIAN BEACH VOLLEYBALL TOUR (ABVT)

1.1 WELCOME AND OVERVIEW

It is with great pleasure on behalf of Volleyball Australia (VA) that we release the 2016/17 Australian Beach Volleyball Tour Handbook.

The Handbook provides a clear articulation of the rules and regulations, and the roles and responsibilities underpinning the delivery of the 2016/17 Tour. The tour is based upon the following principles: use of the Australian Beach Volleyball Ranking System as a means of gaining entry into events, supporting and giving greater recognition to our member state's open events and ensuring that the "look and feel" of each event are consistent so that you the player will experience an event delivery that is consistent across the nation.

We are very excited about the opportunities we have to continue to host international competitions on Australian beaches off the back of some significant events in the past 18 months.

The Australian Beach Volleyball Ranking System once again is a key component of the sport allowing for a wider reach and more events to be included. As a result these events will again be homologated with the FIVB as a combined national tour for Australia.

Once again, the ABVT competition format is aligned with the FIVB tournament rules and regulations and the expectations of players and officials. We will again review this format to ensure it meets all expectations with this review scheduled for April 2017.

We hope that the 2016/17 tour will be one of fierce competition, in an environment that ensures the best teams qualify. We would appreciate your comments and feedback throughout the season so that we can continually improve the quality of our events.

Mathieu Meriaux
Chief Executive Officer

Baz Wedmaier

6.3.1 All athletes competing in the ABVT are bound by the VA Athletes Code of Conduct and when involved in officiating, the VA Officials Code of Conduct. Players shall report to ABVT Events at such times and places as reasonably designated by the ROC and conduct themselves according to the highest standards of honesty, ethics, fair play and good sportsmanship. Players also agree to abstain from any behaviour or conduct that the ROC determines in its reasonable, good faith business judgment to be detrimental to the best interests of the sport of beach volleyball and/or the ABVT including, but not limited to, publicly expressing or publishing remarks which are, in the reasonable opinion of the ROC, derogatory or contrary to the best interests of the ABVT, its officers, directors, players/members, sponsors and/or promoters.

6.4 PLAYERS' GRANT OF RIGHT

6.4.1 Players hereby grant, assign, and license for the Term of the ABVT Agreement to VA or any of their designated entity(ies) (e.g., sponsors and media partners), the non-exclusive right to use, display or otherwise exploit player's name and/or likeness, including his/her photograph, digital image, motion picture, video, voice, facsimile signature or biographical information ("Licensed Player Identity") in connection with ABVT media and ABVT sponsorships, promotions and/or endorsements (including commercial tie-ins). VA specifically acknowledge and agree that sponsors of the ABVT shall not have the right to utilise the Licensed Player Identity in such a way that the use of the Licensed Player Identity through media, sponsorships, promotions and/or endorsements (including commercial tie-ins) could be reasonably construed as an individual endorsement by a PLAYER of any product, service, or entity of such sponsor(s).

- 6.4.2 Players hereby grant, assign, and license, in perpetuity, VA or any VA designated entity(ies), the exclusive right to photograph, record, tape, display, publish, promote and broadcast (either live or recorded) Player's performance at any ABVT Event.
- 6.4.3 Players acknowledge that VA owns all right, title and interest in and to and uses in any way of the names, logos, marks and/or insignia of the ABVT. In this connection, players agree that he/she will not use his/her endorsement (which shall include player's name, signature, photograph, picture, likeness or any facsimile thereof), nor grant the use of his/her endorsement to any third party, for the purpose of endorsing any product or company, or entering into a sponsorship or licensing agreement that uses the name, logos, marks and/or insignias of the ABVT without the express written approval of the VA.
- 6.4.4 Players grant to VA or any VA designated entity(ies) all his/her media rights including, but not limited to, television, internet, home video, and film, for any ABVT Event, any ABVT-related appearance, and/or any practice at a ABVT Event (i.e., excluding private practices of players) in which player participates, and acknowledges that any such ABVT Event, any such ABVT-related appearance, and/or any such practice at an ABVT Event shall be the exclusive property of VA and that VA has the exclusive right to exploit such rights on its own behalf in perpetuity throughout the world. VA specifically acknowledges and agrees that sponsors of the ABVT or VA shall not have the right to utilise the media rights granted to VA and VA designated entities in such a way that the use of such media rights could be reasonably construed as an individual endorsement by player of any product, service, or entity of such sponsor(s).
- 6.4.5 Players grant to VA the right to capture, take, create or use player's picture or image (whether still, motion, video, digital or television), alone or together with others, for still photographs, digital images, motion pictures, television or home videos or other broadcast uses. VA may use such pictures or images, irrespective of who takes such pictures or images, in any manner it desires for publicity or promotional purposes for the VA throughout the world, or in conjunction with any uses as provided for herein. The rights to any such pictures taken by VA shall belong to VA in perpetuity. Further, players acknowledge and agree that VA shall own all rights and interests in the film, digital, television and video footage, as well as all still photography, produced or taken at, or in conjunction with, any ABVT Event, any ABVT-related appearance, and/or any practice at an ABVT Event. VA specifically acknowledge and agree that third party sponsors of the ABVT shall not have the right to utilise player's picture or image in such a way that the Licensed Player Identity could be reasonably construed as an individual endorsement by player of any product, service, or entity. In connection with the foregoing sentence, VA agrees to notify third party sponsors of such restriction on use of player's licensed player identity (it being acknowledged that inadvertent failure to notify such third party sponsor shall not be deemed a breach by VA hereunder but player shall have the right to pursue any and all available remedies directly against such sponsor).

6.4.6 Players will autograph such items as reasonably requested by VA. All items to be personalised and autographed will be supplied by VA and may be used by VA as business gifts, promotions or charitable auction items; provided, however, that VA may not sell any such personalised and autographed items for cash without the prior written approval of player.
